(5) Duties of Applicants

- a) Applicants must be able to run the project with full respect to the local laws, regulations and health protocols, as well as to fulfill the responsibility that comes from receiving support from governmental funding. It is the applicant's duty to conduct clear accounting, publicity, and reporting.

- b) The grant will only cover partial costs of the project: the grant will NOT cover 100% of the cost. Projects must be based on cost-sharing, and applicants are encouraged to find other resources along with this grant, such as sponsors, grants, donations, revenue generation (e.g. ticket sales) and participation fees, as well as the applicant's own funding.
- c) If it is necessary to apply for a visa for professionals or experts, the applicant must fulfill the duty of obtaining it for the professionals or experts as well as permits from the local authorities for hosting the event, wherever applicable.
- d) Applicants must NOT be receiving any support from other Japan Foundation resources for the same project, including grants from the Japan Foundation headquarters' grant in Tokyo, and local grants from other Japan Foundation country offices.
- e) Any recurring application from the same applicant in the same fiscal year will not be considered.
- f) In principle, grants will not be provided to organizations that have received support as part of the same program for three consecutive fiscal years, unless the Japan Foundation, Jakarta assesses that there is strong justification for the continuation of the project. While it is possible to apply for the grant for the same program for the fourth consecutive year, low priority is given to such applicants.

3. GRANT COVERAGE

- (1) Grants will be given on a cost-sharing basis.
- (2) The grant amount will be decided upon consideration of each project's scale and necessity.

- (3) The Japan Foundation, Jakarta contribution will be averaged IDR 50,000,000 for each project, but the actual grant amount may be lower or higher than this amount. If requesting a much larger sum than this approximate average, the applicant should be prepared for two eventualities: (a) the project may be rejected since it is deemed to be beyond the scope of the Japan Foundation, Jakarta to support it; or (b) the project may be supported but at a much lower level than requested.
- (4) The contribution of the Japan Foundation, Jakarta is limited to the expenses actually paid in the following budgetary items during the period of grant:
- Transportation: international and/or domestic transportation expenses
  - Honorarium/wages (for the professionals, researchers, collaborators, guest speakers, guest lecturers, assistants, interpreters)
  - Accommodation expenses
  - Purchase of research materials
  - Production of catalogs, brochures, leaflets, proceedings, and reports
  - Rental fees for venue and equipment.
- (5) The Japan Foundation, Jakarta's grant cannot be used for the following items.
- Salaries, and social welfare expenses for the regular employees of the applying institution
  - Banquet and entertainment fees
  - Telephone, fax and postage costs
  - Office Supplies

7. OBLIGATIONS

This grant project is governed under the regulations of the Japan Foundation including “Law for the Proper Execution of a Budget Relating to Subsidies” (Law No. 179 of 1955) as well as relevant Indonesia laws.

Before the implementation of approved project

If the grantee wishes to change any of the following:

- a) Project design and line-up of invited guests (esp. Japanese resource speakers/artists);
- b) Distribution of funds within the overall budget covered by the grant (limited to those expenses covered by grant);
- c) Implementation schedule (postponement or cancelation);
- d) Change of venue, etc.

the grantee shall promptly coordinate with the assigned staff of the Japan Foundation, Jakarta. A written approval from the Japan Foundation, Jakarta must be obtained first before the grantee will make any changes to the approved project.

During the implementation of approved project:

- (1) Any material that is created pertaining to the subsidized project shall clearly indicate that it was subsidized by the Japan Foundation. The Grantee shall acknowledge the Japan Foundation, Jakarta's financial support by using the Japan Foundation logo mark in its publicity document or exercise.
- (2) The Grantee shall conduct a survey (online/onsite/hybrid). The Japan Foundation, Jakarta will provide a survey template if needed.
- (3) The Japan Foundation, Jakarta has the right to demand a progress report from the grantee regarding the subsidized project during the implementation of the project from the grantee if such a report is considered necessary.

Upon the completion of approved project

- (1) Within thirty (30) days after the project is completed, the Grantee will be required to submit a Project Report, including:
  - a) A financial report to the Japan Foundation, Jakarta with complete original receipts. If the Financial Report, receipts and other supporting documents are not in accordance with the application, or violates Grant Terms and Conditions, the decision may be revoked and the applicants may be requested to return the provisional amount. This grant will NOT cover the cost which was not proposed in the application. In principle, expenditures for items other than the approved applied amount or changes in allocation of grant among approved applied item(s) are NOT possible.

- b) A Survey result of audience/participants.
  - c) Copies of links to access photo/video documentation or photo/video outputs.
The links must be incorporated in the narrative report.
  - d) Public relations materials.
  - e) Press coverage / articles (if any)
- (2) When the Japan Foundation, Jakarta has received a report relating to the completion of the subsidized project, the Japan Foundation, Jakarta shall examine, by reading the report and through other means, and, if necessary, by conducting on-site investigations and other activities, whether the results of the subsidized project conform to the content of the decision to award a grant and the conditions attached. When the Japan Foundation, Jakarta recognizes that the results are in due conformity, the Japan Foundation, Jakarta shall confirm the amount of the grant to be awarded and inform the grantee of the amount by delivering a Confirmation of Grant Payment document to the grantee.
- (3) When the amount of grant has been confirmed in accordance with the provisions in the above paragraph, a comparison will be made between the real expenditures that are covered by the grant and the amount of grant that has been decided shall be awarded, and whichever is the lower figure will be the amount of grant that is awarded.

8. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- (1) As to projects we support, information such as the name of the applicant and project descriptions might be made public on the Japan Foundation's public relations materials.
- (2) When we receive a request for information based on the "Law Concerning the Disclosure of Information Held by Independent Administrative Institutions, etc." (Law No. 140 of December 5, 2001), as a general rule, submitted application forms and related materials will be disclosed, except for information stipulated by the law as something not to be disclosed.
